

ADULT PROGRAMMING REPORT APRIL 2016

Display Case: This month's display case features pearl creations by Diane Hoskins.

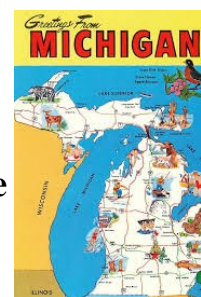

Make a Deco Mesh Wreath: Debbie Smith taught the basics of deco mesh wreath construction. Each participant made their own wreath to take home.

One Book One Community Book Discussion: This year's choice was the New York Times bestselling memoir, Rocket Boys, by Homer Hickham Jr. Jeanne Berg of the Coldwater Friend's of the Library led the discussion.

Free Movie Matinee: In keeping with the book discussion, the movie "October Sky" was shown. Popcorn was provided.

Michigan Rediscovered: Ron Rademacher gave a virtual road trip across Michigan on more than a dozen destinations most folks have missed. Ron is the author of five books which were available for signing and purchase.

Coloring Is Just Not For Kids: Due to high demand, the coloring group has been extended through the month of April.

Ongoing Book Discussion: Carl Semmelroth's book discussion will be continuing through the month of April.