

ADULT PROGRAMMING REPORT

JUNE 2016

Display Case: This month's display features a collection of local vintage bottles from the private collection of Mike McCurley.

Gardening

Presentation: Krista Glei from Glei's Orchards and Greenhouses, presented a program on spring planting. We learned what, where and when to plant, and how to keep plants looking great all summer long.

Canvas Painting Class: Staff member Loretta Sherfield presented another acrylic painting class, this time focusing on flowers.

Beginning Genealogy:

Bonnie Sherman of the Holbrook Heritage Room showed the basics of beginning genealogy.

Poetry Contest: The month of April is National Poetry Month. To celebrate, we had another Poetry Contest in the month of April, with the winners announced in May. There were cash prizes for the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners. “

1st place winner Betty Taylor

Storyteller Lou Ann Homan as Gene Stratton Porter:

Storyteller Lou Ann Homan brought her one-woman show to the library. She portrayed Indiana author, naturalist and photographer Gene Stratton-Porter, the author of the popular books A Girl of the Limberlost and Freckles.
